

Sustainable Development Goals (SDG)

Working together with the Institute of Community Development of the University of Mayaguez in the relief operation of AMURT and AMURTEL in Puerto Rico continues to bring inspiration and hope regarding the opportunity of bringing social change through selfless service.

Ananda Marga had opportunity in the year 2017 to be represented more than one time in global meetings at the United Nations and there is a progressive convergence in the humanitarian goals shared at all levels in the global community. In the year 2015 a new resolution has been adopted and endorsed by the United Nations called Agenda 2030 . It has been a revision and further projection of the Millennium Goals adopted till then.

Agenda 2030 envisions a sustainable development for ALL nations based on 17

Sustainable Development Goals which can be broken down into 169 targets. One of them is number 13 goal - Climate Change:

“Take urgent action to combat climate change and its impacts by regulating emissions and promoting developments in renewable energy.”
