

Tom Tom - A shoutcast of Ananda Marga

Crimson Dawn is devoted to News and Resources providing an online panorama Ananda Marga. The rhythm of the news sometimes calls for brief announcements. We wish to provide a page always available online where you can highlight coming event or an appeal. We call it Tom Tom as a remembrance of the tribal tradition of using drums for communication. On the left upper corner of the front page of Crimson Dawn we have added a Tom Tom Button pointing to this page. If you find it useful please send more messages for immediate Tom Tom shoutcasting.

Ac. Pashupati (Steven Landau MD RYT 500, ERYT 200) is planning a 9 day Yoga Teacher Training in Ananda Marga/Rajadhiraja yoga plus other disciplines to be conducted under the aegis of the Shiva Dancing School of Yoga. This training will be sufficient to warrant 200 hour RYT certification under Yoga Alliance for those already well versed in Ananda Marga practices, specifically those who have at some point completed Acarya, Tattvika, or LFT training, even if they are not currently active in that role. Those who have not had such formal training may also attend, and make up their hours in another way.

Course will take place on March 3 2018 through March 11, and will be at my home studio at 1004 Hammel Road in Greensboro NC. We can make arrangements for those attending to sleep and eat here also. Fees will depend on income level and will be discussed individually.

Ac. Pashupati has recently given similar training to over 150 Dadas, Didis and Margis in Kolkata and Puri, India in 2016 and 2017

Thanks!

Best wishes,

Pashupati
